

ROOMFLOW

RoomFlow Terms of Service

Platform terms for using RoomFlow.

Status: Pilot Version - 2026

1. Acceptance of Terms

By using RoomFlow, a Property agrees to use the platform only for authorized property operations, guest tipping, and reporting purposes.

2. Platform Use

RoomFlow provides QR-based tipping pages, property portal tools, asset generation, and reporting. RoomFlow may update or improve the platform over time.

3. Authorized Users

The Property is responsible for controlling who has access to its portal and for ensuring that users act in accordance with the Property's policies.

4. Payments

Payments are processed through Stripe or another supported processor. Processing fees, payout timing, and connected account requirements may be subject to processor terms.

5. Prohibited Use

- Do not misuse QR codes or place them in unauthorized locations.
- Do not attempt to interfere with payment processing or reporting.
- Do not use RoomFlow for unlawful, deceptive, or unauthorized transactions.

6. Reporting

Reports are provided for operational convenience and should be reviewed by the Property before use in any payroll, accounting, tax, or compliance process.

7. Availability

RoomFlow aims to provide reliable service but does not guarantee uninterrupted availability.

8. Changes to Terms

RoomFlow may update these terms from time to time. Material changes may be communicated to properties using reasonable methods.

9. Contact

Questions about these Terms may be sent to info@roomflowhq.com.

Note: This template is provided for operational readiness and should be reviewed by qualified legal, tax, and payments counsel before broad commercial use.
